Fight Cancer Foundation is a national charity dedicated to providing care, treatment and support for cancer patients and their families and funding vital research into cancer treatment and cures.

Founded in 1989 as the Bone Marrow Donor Institute to establish Australia's first bone marrow donor registry and find a cure for leukaemia, the organisation's broader scope now provides support services for patients with blood and other cancers.

Accommodation

Research

BMDI Cord Blood Bank

Established and operated in partnership, BMDI Cord Blood Bank sources and provides cord blood for patients needing a stem cell transplant for treatment of leukaemia and other life-threatening illnesses.

Australian Bone Marrow Donor Registry

In 1990, Fight Cancer Foundation was instrumental in the establishment of the Australian Bone Marrow Donor Registry. The Registry provides a second chance at life for patients unable to find a suitable bone marrow donor match from a relative.
