

GUESS THE PLAYER

AFL Edition

Test your knowledge of AFL players with our Guess the Player card game! This is a great game for the whole team.

How to play

1. The aim of the game is to collect as many AFL player cards as possible, by guessing the AFL team player the quickest.
2. The designated quiz master reads on fact out to the other players.
3. For each fact read out, players get on guess each.
4. Players must call out their own name to have their guess.
5. The player who guesses correctly first, keeps the AFL team player card.
6. At the end of the game, the player with the most AFL team player cards wins.

1. This player made his debut into football in 2014 and has played approx. 80 games to date.
2. Plays as a midfielder and is renowned for his goal-sense.
3. This player was a member of Richmond's VFL Premiership team in 2017.
4. He also claimed the Norm Goss Medal as best on ground for the 2017 VFL.
5. In 2019, this player started playing for their now team, the Western Bulldogs.

Sam Lloyd, Western Bulldogs FC, AFL

1. This player broadcasted his arrival in the AFL with a soaring pack mark and was nominated for Goal of the Week in his second week playing.
2. Grew up in Lake Grace, Western Australia, and went to school at the Aquinas College in Perth.
3. This player was selected by the Fremantle Dockers with the 20th pick in the 2009 national draft.
4. He received a nomination for the 2010 AFL Rising Star award in round 9 of the 2010 season
5. Fremantle captain who won the 2019 Brownlow Medal, claiming the AFL's greatest individual honour for a second time.

Nat Fyfe, Fremantle FC, AFL

1. Grew up in Ballarat and this player played football and cricket as a kid.
2. Was a handy and impressive fast bowler on the cricket field during the Under-16 National Championships, and was also an Under-18 All Australian.
3. At the age of only 17, he was drafted by the Crows with pick No. 2 in the 2011 mini draft.
4. This player had a career best year in 2017, playing 20 games and averaging 28 disposals, but due to ongoing injury was sidelined for all of 2018.
5. A midfielder for the Adelaide Crows, this player made a great comeback in 2019 and claimed the Malcolm Blight Medal for the first time.

Brad Couch, Adelaide, FC, AFL

1. A country boy from South Australia, romantic comedy tragic & Golden State Warriors fanatic.
2. Nicknamed the Cowboy, he played various junior sports growing up including basketball, soccer, cricket and football.
3. The players' first season as a Brisbane Lion could be described as near perfect.
4. He previously played for Fremantle between 2012 and 2018.
5. New to the Brisbane Lions in 2019, he thrived and won an All-Australian team selection for the first time in his career. He also finished equal-third in the Brownlow Medal with 26 votes.

Lachie Neale, Brisbane Lions FC, AFL

1. Born in Perth and at a young age moved to the small farming town of Northampton in Western Australia's Mid-West where they started playing junior football.
2. This player's cousin also plays in the AFL for the West Coast Eagles.
3. A three-time John Nicholls Medallist, this player became the second-youngest player to win this award when he first won it in 2015.
4. Was recruited by the Carlton Football Club with its first round selection in the 2013 AFL National Draft.
5. He has served as Carlton's co-captain since the 2019 season.

Patrick Cripps, Carlton FC, AFL

1. A former basketball player, this player switched to Australian Rules football in 2010.
2. Has played 132 games in the AFL to date not missing a game in his past two brilliant seasons.
3. He was recruited by Collingwood in the 2012 AFL Draft.
4. In 2018 he won the Herald Sun Player of the Year award with 27 votes.
5. Despite playing as ruckman, this player is able to follow up his ruckwork, win the ball himself and apply tackles. He has been labelled as a 'fourth midfielder' by his teammates.

Brodie Grundy, Collingwood FC, AFL

1. This player is the younger brother of former North Melbourne captain and dual Syd Barker Medallist.
2. As a 16 year old, he was named on the half-back line of the 2009 Under-18 All Australian team and was awarded the Larke Medal as the competition's best player.
3. This 26-year-old managed to play every match of the season two times in his career, where he averaged 23 disposals, four marks and four tackles per game.
4. Winning the Gold Coast Suns Club Champion award in 2014, this player became the second player to win this award after Gary Ablett Jr. had claimed it in the club's first three seasons.
5. He has served as Gold Coast co-captain since the 2019 season.

David Swallow, Gold Coast Suns FC, AFL

1. Growing up in Perth Western Australia, this player excelled at both cricket and football.
2. Pursuing a career in football, this player went on to play for the Swan Districts in the West Australian Football League.
3. Off the field, this player has a keen interest in fashion and part owner of Macelleria restaurants in two cities in Australia.
4. He has played 134 games with the Giants since his debut in 2012.
5. In early December 2019 this player was appointed captain of the GWS Giants.

Stephen Coniglio GWS FC, AFL

1. Started playing football for Railways Football Club in the Great Northern Football League in WA.
2. At the age of 16, player was awarded the Guardian Medal for his best on ground performance.
3. Previously played for the Gold Coast Suns from 2013 to 2016.
4. Won the AFL Rising Star award in his first season in 2013.
5. Started his career with the Hawthorn Football Club in 2017 as a midfielder.

Jaeger O'Meara, Hawthorn FC, AFL

1. At a young age this player was a basketball and rugby union player.
2. He made his AFL debut in the 2011 AFL season.
3. In 2019, this player's output was sensational, averaging 36 hit-outs and 12 to advantage per game – the most in the competition.
4. Player claimed their second Rob Barassi Jnr Trophy in 2019 as their leadership qualities continued to shine.
5. Named as Melbourne's captain at the start of the 2020 AFL season.

Max Gawn, Melbourne FC, AFL

1. Growing up in Geelong, this player's father played reserves for Geelong.
2. To date he has played 221 games in his AFL career.
3. He previously played for the Western Bulldogs from 2006 to 2014.
4. A dual Syd Barker Medallist, he was selected in the 2018 All-Australian team.
5. While he's not on the AFL field playing for the Kangaroos, he is the Managing Director of One Private Wealth.

Shaun Higgins, North Melbourne FC, AFL

1. Played football for Torquay prior to being drafted; his late father is a 200-club and life member of the Torquay Football Club.
2. He holds a dual All-Australian and dual John Cahill Medallist.
3. This player was selected with Port Adelaide's first selection and fifth overall in the 2006 AFL draft.
4. This players 2010 season was their best season to date with a career best average of 23 possessions per game.
5. He was captain of his club from 2013 to 2018.

Travis Boak, Port Adelaide FC, AFL

1. Born to a Māori father and an Australian mother, this player grew up in small city in Victoria.
2. Learning the sport with the local Auskick program, player first took up football at the age of six.
3. Player made their debut in the AFL in 2010, drafted by Richmond with the club's first pick and third selection overall.
4. Sticking with Richmond since 2010, this player has won two premierships, two Jack Dyer Medals and three All-Australian selections.
5. In 2017, this player won the league's highest individual honour, the Brownlow Medal, with a record 36 votes!

Dustin Martin, Richmond FC, AFL

1. Recruited from the Horsham Demons (Vic)/ North Ballarat Under-18s.
2. Player made their debut in the AFL in 2012.
3. When the team captain went down through injury, this player stepped up to the plate to guide his team through the troubling times.
4. He has received the Ian Stewart Medal for best on ground and two Trevor Barker Award for St Kilda's best and fairest.
5. He is the cousin of Jobe Watson and nephew of Tim Watson and goes by the nickname Seb.

Sebastian Ross, St Kilda FC, AFL

1. Originally played for the Dandenong Stingrays before being drafted in the AFL.
2. Player has earned an All Australian selection and won two Bob Skilton medals since his debut into the AFL in 2011.
3. This player has won a 2012 premiership medal.
4. In 2015, he was added to the club's leadership group at the age of 22.
5. Since 2019, this player has led the team as a co-captain alongside Josh Kennedy and Dane Rampe.

Luke Parker, Sydney Swans FC, AFL

1. This player's family surname is Cornish.
2. This player's older brother currently plays for Perth in the West Australian Football League.
3. He represented Western Australia at the 2011 AFL Under-18 Championships.
4. In a bizarre incident in round 10, 2014, he collided with the shoulder of Collingwood defender Jarrod Witts, causing his two front teeth to snap off.
5. Drafted by the Brisbane Lions in the 2011 AFL draft, this player officially traded to the West Coast Eagles in 2013 receiving the number 6 guernsey, which had been vacated by the retiring Mark Nicoski.

Elliot Yeo, West Coast Eagles FC, AFL

1. This former Northern Knight caught the eye of recruiters for his height, endurance and ability to play almost any position on the ground.
2. Winner of three Charles Sutton Medals, the youngest multiple-winner in history.
3. Player debuted in Round 5, 2014 and by Round 13 he received a NAB AFL Rising Star nomination for a great performance in the win over Collingwood.
4. A key member of the Bulldogs' 2016 premiership, their first in 62 years.
5. The Bont has served as Western Bulldogs captain since the 2020 season.

Marcus Bontempelli, Western Bulldogs FC, AFL

1. Started his AFL stardom as a 17-year-old underage recruit from the Dandenong Stingrays.
2. Was awarded the 2018 Anzac Medal and the Neale Daniher Trophy in 2019.
3. Previously played for the Greater Western Sydney Giants between 2012 and 2015.
4. He is a Collingwood Football Club player.
5. He is famously known as "Treloarsome".

Adam Treloar, Collingwood FC, AFL