

Host a household event

Inject some colour into your weekend with a Footy Colours Day celebration at home to help kids with cancer! Wear your favourite team's colours, play some footy games and whip up some footy treats for a fun afternoon together.

Use our step by step guide to help you host a virtual event at your workplace this year!

Step 1.

Register with an online fundraising page

Having an online fundraising page for your event is the best and easiest way to collect funds without the need for physical cash. You can personalise your page by adding photos and explain why you are taking part. Send out your page link far and wide to direct people to your page to donate!

Step 2.

Get creative. Plan your day!

Think about what activities will work for your household. Maybe it's coming together over a bbq or an afternoon tea featuring footy favourite treats. Could be watching the game together, or perhaps it's playing footy themed games. Whatever you plan, don't forget to wear your favourite footy team's colours!

Step 3.

The big day

Rally your household and get your event started! Take lots of pictures and share using #FootyColoursDay.

Step 4.

Raise important funds for kids with cancer

Whether you ask family, friends and co-workers to donate to your online fundraising page, or make a household donation, every dollar raised helps kids with cancer keep up with school.
