About Fight Cancer Foundation

Fight Cancer Foundation is a national charity dedicated to providing care, treatment and support for cancer patients and their families and funding vital research into cancer treatment and cures.

Founded in 1989 as the Bone Marrow Donor Institute to establish Australia's first bone marrow donor registry and find a cure for leukaemia, the organisation's broader scope now provides support services for patients with blood and other cancers.

Accommodation

Fight Cancer Foundation provides affordable accommodation for rural and interstate patients accessing major treating hospitals in New South Wales, Tasmania and Victoria.

Education Support

Fight Cancer Foundation provides education support to children and young people undergoing cancer treatment.

Research

Fight Cancer Foundation is proud of our longstanding partnership with The Royal Melbourne Hospital and Melbourne Health to fund vital research into better patient outcomes.

BMDI Cord Blood Bank

Established and operated in partnership, BMDI Cord Blood Bank, sources and provides cord blood for patients needing a stem cell transplant for treatment of leukaemia and other life-threatening illnesses.

Australian Bone Marrow Donor Registry

In 1990, Fight Cancer Foundation was instrumental in the establishment of the Australian Bone Marrow Donor Registry. The registry provides a second chance at life for patients unable to find a suitable bone marrow donor match from a relative. Today, the registry provides access to more than 28 million registered donors worldwide.
