

Go it Alone

GIVE UP WINE

Or coffee, or sugar... Ask for donations to support your efforts.

CUT YOUR HAIR

Set your fundraising target and let everyone know that if you reach your goal you'll cut or shave your beloved locks!

GARAGE SALE

Gather your pre-loved clothes and knick-knacks and sell them to eager passerby's.

QUIZ NIGHT

Charge an entry fee and include a raffle to raise extra funds.

With Friends

DONATE YOUR BIRTHDAY

Ask for donations instead of presents for your next birthday, or other special event.

SAUSAGE SIZZLE

Host a sausage sizzle at your local supermarket, hardware store or club grounds.

DO IT YOUR WAY

To make a difference

RUN A MARATHON

Or any distance, and get sponsored for your efforts. There are endless organised fun-runs in every state and territory.

Get Active

SPORTS DAY

Organise a sports day for family and friends with a small registration fee. Challenge them to 18 holes, a cricket match or even a tennis tournament.

AUCTION IT OFF

Hold an auction for a coveted item or perk in your office: the best corner office for a week, the CEO's carpark for a day, or an early finish on a chosen Friday.

BOOT CAMP

Find a local trainer who will run a boot camp session for you and your friends or co-workers. Charge $20 for the session and donate the proceeds to Fight Cancer Foundation.

SWEEPSTAKE

Whether it's how many lollies are in the jar or who will win the World Cup, get your office in the spirit of fundraising all in the name of fighting cancer.

At Work

AFTERNOON TEA

Ask your co-workers to bring a plate and charge a gold coin donation to enjoy all the treats.
